Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Hardeeville Middle/High School is in its second year of operation. We are pleased to share with our stakeholders that our 2008 data show a significant increase in the percentage of students passing the state of South Carolina middle and high school assessments. Our students and staff worked diligently to decrease the achievement gap of our students in both the middle and high school programs. We have also made application to and have been accepted in the High Schools That Work (HSTW) and the Making Middle Grades Work (MMGW) networks for the state of South Carolina. Both programs provide funding and training using research based instructional strategies to help schools improve student achievement. As a member of this network, we will be able to participate in state funded assessments that are used strictly for improving students' academic growth. In October 2009, we will host a Technical Assistance Visiting Team that will come in and assess our school and help us through the process of developing a quality HSTW/MMGW site. Our staff has also successfully implemented our district's first Math/Science and Engineering Academy. We began our implementation of the academy with a cohort of the 6th through 12th grades. The course offered was an Introduction to Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Careers. A collaborative was developed between University of South Carolina at Beaufort (USCB) and Savannah State University (SSU) to provide professional development for teachers in the area of engineering instruction and to attract minority students into engineering programs at the post secondary level. STEM career students were provided field experiences inclusive of a trip to the College of Engineering at USC - Columbia, job shadowing at the SC Electric and Power plant, the Beaufort-Jasper Water and Sewage Authority (BJWSA), and the FIRST Robotics Competition held at Clemson University. Our engineering program also has two fully equipped math, science, and engineering computer labs. The computers are loaded with four engineering modules: Basic Electricity, Robotics and Automation, Research and Design, and Digital Audio Technology. These modules come equipped with simulators as well as assessments to measure students' progress. Another first for our school was the addition of sixth grade to our student population. We now serve 583 students in grades six through twelve. Currently, the student population is made up of 62% African American, 23% Hispanic, 14% Caucasian, and 1% other. The average attendance rate is 96.8%. The number of students classified as disabled is 13.2%. The percentage of students receiving free or reduced lunch is presently 80% for the middle school and 67% for the high school. Our faculty is composed of forty-four certified teachers and six certified non-teaching faculty members. Five of the certified teachers are International teachers who are highly qualified in their content areas. There are currently three certified vacancies on our staff, one in high school science, and two in mathematics; however, each class is being taught by a degreed instructor. Our classified staff consists of five clerical, seven custodial, seven paraprofessionals, and one hall monitor. The 2008-2009 school year is the first year for all grade levels to wear uniforms. While there are still students in the high school making the adjustment, we believe the uniform requirement is an asset and helps students to spend more time concentrating on their academics. Single-gender classes in the middle school began last year and are continuing in grades 6-8. Teachers and students indicate that they like the single-gender classes because they allow students to focus on course content and not on the social issues that come with adolescent group dynamics. Based on previous data and state assessment scores, our middle school and high school were identified to prepare a Focused School Renewal Plan facilitated by a state appointed External Review Team Liaison (ERTL). Our liaison for the 2008-2009 SY is Dr. Harold McClain. The focus plan is designed to address student achievement and leadership from both the school and district level. Through the collaborative efforts of the School Leadership Team, faculty, staff, and Dr. McClain, we submitted a plan that was accepted by the state that we have been using in conjunction with data and the approved state curriculum to drive instruction for this academic year. The 2008 state report card indicates that we made academic progress in both the middle and high schools. The 2008
